

The Prefect Podcast Episode 3

In this weeks episode, Luke and Laura sit down with 5th years students James Chatham and Saoirse Laird, 3rd year student Jamie Tobin and 2nd year student Sarah Whelan to discuss the importance of extra-curricular activities here in Old Bawn.

Old Bawn has so much to offer and this group of students have been involved in so much in our school. From musicals and sport to Habitat for Humanity, it is great to hear their thoughts on the importance of getting involved.

We hope you enjoy this episode.

